After a sheltered childhood, life for 16-year-old Sierra West has never been more natural than the last few years in Canada. Now, with news of her father's next diplomatic assignment in Paris, Sierra believes this is a sign she is destined to design teen fashion. As Sierra prepares for the French lifestyle, her life takes a drastic turn when she witnesses a horrifying murder after leaving her expedited French class in Ottawa. With only a few weeks remaining before she and her family embark for Europe, Sierra finds herself stalked by the killer's brother. Determined to keep his cutthroat brother out of prison not only for murder, but also for human trafficking, the killer's brother threatens Sierra to keep quiet, or he'll silence her forever.
