Touched By The Hand Of God: Finding Rest in the Midst of Turmoil Joseph Radosti

It's September 11, 2001. Joseph Radosti helplessly looks on from a high-rise office building near ground zero as United Airlines Flight 175 roars towards the South Tower at full speed. Seconds later an explosion erupts instantaneously killing hundreds of people. Panic-stricken people flock to the streets trying to escape impending danger as fighter jets soar through the sky. Death and destruction ensue. One year later, still struggling from the emotional upheaval of 9/11, Radosti heads off to work but collapses in pain at his office. He has surgery to remove a blockage in his intestine, but something goes haywire. Doctors are feverishly trying to discover what went wrong, while his life slips away.
