Twenty-year-old Shane McAllister is a typical, music-obsessed girl. Going to concerts every chance she gets is the only surefire way that she knows to make herself happy. To her, nothing in the world is more important than her favorite musicians. Enter Enzo Moretti. He's the gorgeous, cocky, eccentric lead singer from her favorite band, Toxic Radio. Shane loves him more than anyone could ever understand; sometimes she wonders if she would be able to survive without hearing his voice through her speakers everyday. Her only goal in life is to meet him once, and then she would be able to die happily...but that just might be the price she'll have to pay, because her favorite band is hiding a deadly secret. With one horrifying Toxic Radio concert, Shane's entire life is turned upside down. Now, Enzo proves to be much more important to her than she ever thought imaginable, and she's thrust into a supernatural world of obsession, jealousy, and violence that she never knew existed behind the stage...and there's no getting out alive.
