Mail Order Bride - Western Romance

Lucy was beautiful, smart, charming—all the things a man desired and she knew it. Traveling the country with her husband, providing the distractions for his cons, she knew just how to make a man give her everything he had. Except, she couldn't get the one man she wanted to do the same. Elias loved the con and never wanted to stop, despite what he tells her. Sucking her into one last con, he promises this will be it and then they will be out of the business. All she has to do is answer an ad for a mail order bride and pretend to fall in love with the man while Elias robs him blind.

The problem is, she's not sure the cowboy is the only one falling. Colby is sweet, loyal, and everything she wishes her life was. The closer she gets to him, the further she feels herself slipping away from Elias. Torn between two worlds, Lucy doesn't know what to do. She might be in too deep to get out, but her lies might make it impossible to stay. Is this last con worth her heart?
