Still Standing Edward F. Lane

Sean and Eric Campbell are identical twins who have been through a lot in life. Even though they have had their ups and downs they both know that they can always count on each other. Sean and Eric have created their version of a “family” within the two of them and are happy about their life. Suddenly a life altering event changes everything the twins have built together, and one learns a devastating secret about the other – leaving him to wonder which way he can turn, and who he can truly trust.
