Basic concept of the book is to present the most relevant legal constraints derivated from the implementation of the "Third Energy Liberalisation Package". The research investigates legal shortfalls of new EU legislation from the day-to-day business perspective. By comparing and contrasting former and present EU rules and their implementation. It shows how the general aim of spurring the liberalisation of the energy EU market is achievable. It gives a kind of de lege ferenda stipulations which may be included in next energy market liberalisation legislation.
