Reece Corbett grew up on the mean streets on New York City, abused, used and in trouble with the law. Pulled from despair, by a mysterious man named, Frank, the obstinate, angry street thug eventually earns respect and makes a name for herself, as well as a reputation, despite the demons that still haunt her.

When Reece inherits a Gentleman's Club called 'The Lounge', after Frank's sudden death, protecting her 'girls,' especially one freaky little dancer with a heart of gold named, Cori, is the only thing she takes pride in.

Faith Ashford grew up wealthy, with all the creature comforts that money provides. However, Faith wasn't like the other spoiled rich girls, and had no desire to follow in those rather shallow footsteps. Instead, the aspiring actress follows her dreams and finds herself in a tenement on New York's Alphabet City, working the night shift at a rather seedy bar. When Cori wanders into Faith's bar, she has no idea that she would become Faith's salvation.
