Rediscover this moving fan-favorite tale of finding a second chance at happiness from New York Times bestselling author Lindsay McKenna

Captain Kyle Anderson can't believe his buddy Mike is tying the knot. And when Mike, a fellow captain in the US Air Force, asks Kyle to be his best man, of course Kyle says yes. When he flies home from Thailand, where his squadron is based, Kyle finally gets to meet the woman his friend has been talking about for a year. But what he never expected is for Gale Remington to be so...alluring. And he certainly isn't prepared for the sparks that fly between them.

Gale is beyond happy to be marrying Mike. So why, when she meets his best man, Kyle, does her heart beat a little quicker, her breath come a little faster? He's her fiancé's best friend—nothing can happen between them. But nothing is certain in the theater of war, and fate may have other plans for her and Kyle.
