The Original Bestselling Teachings of Law of Attraction

You are not a body with a mind walking around in a physical universe. You are pure conscious awareness, and the physical universe is “walking around” within you. That includes what you think of as your body and your mind, as well as every other body you perceive.

In this groundbreaking book by Abraham, you'll learn what happens when two people put out conflicting intentions. You'll understand how and why everything in your life comes about, and how the subjective universe only has one manifest. You.

Readers of Rhonda Byrne's The Secret and Lynn Grabhorn's Excuse Me, Your Life is Waiting will find this book of great importance, as it touches upon subjects only briefly hinted at in the previous books.

What happens when two people go after the same desire? What about when you want one thing, but your boyfriend wants another? What about children who attract negative events? Are they really responsible for it?

In The Abraham Secret, readers begin exploring the deep questions and secret knowledge behind the nature of this vibrational universe, questions that were briefly hinted in the original bestselling volume, The Abraham Method.

The Law of Attraction simply says that you attract into your life whatever you think about. Your dominant thoughts will find a way to manifest. But the Law of Attraction gives rise to some tough questions that don't seem to have good answers. I would say, however, that these problems aren't caused by the Law of Attraction itself but rather by the Law of Attraction as applied to objective reality.

Here are some of those problematic questions:

- What happens when people put out conflicting intentions, like two people intending to get the same promotion when only one position is available?
- Do children, babies, and/or animals put out intentions?
- If a child is abused, does that mean the child intended it in some way?
- If I intend for my relationship to improve, but my spouse doesn't seem to care, what will happen?

These questions seem to weaken the plausibility of the Law of Attraction. Sometimes people answer them by going pretty far out. For example, it's been said by LoAers that a young child experiences abuse because s/he intended it or earned it during a past life. Well, sure... we can explain just about anything if we bring past lives into the equation, but IMO that's a cop-out. On the other hand, objective reality without the Law of Attraction doesn't provide satisfactory answers either — supposedly some kids are just born unlucky. That's a cop-out too.

I've never been satisfied by others' answers to these questions, and they're pretty important questions if the Law of Attraction is to be believed. Some books hint at the solution but never really nail it. That nail, however, can be found in The Abraham Secret. This book goes in depth into why and how things happen to "innocent" people, and one crucial piece of evidence that validates the Law of Attraction for any non-believer.
