Are you waiting for a gorgeous shifter to come sweep you off your feet? Well say hello to Mark the werewolf!

Book 1 of 2 in this paranormal werewolf shifter romance!

Cara just had to make it to Phoenix in time to celebrate her grandmother's birthday.

Her world turned recently upside down when her sister went missing two months ago.

Taking a road trip across the western U.S. by herself was probably not the greatest idea.

She didn't expect to get lost, and she certainly didn't expect to meet and end up traveling with Mark.

Mark, a loner and a hitchhiker, and a werewolf, on his way to battle his own problems, saves Cora from a dangerous situation and she offers him a ride in exchange for protection.

His good looks and almost animalistic way took her back at first, but she soon realizes that he's everything she could want in a man and more.

Will she find a lasting relationship with Mark? Will she locate her sister?
