The Holy City II: Rise in Power Michael F. Blake

Marcus Williams, the eldest of the two brothers, rose through the rankings of his sophisticated street organization. With a blink of an eye Marcus found himself up against jealousy, envy, and frenemies within the Nation he devoted his life to. Being the youngest Chief ever in one of the oldest organizations on the gritty streets of Chicago, Marcus rises to every occasion to show and prove why he's the kingpin and never plans on giving up his throne. Will he lose it all chasing the money and the street life, jeopardizing the most important people in his life? On the other hand Christopher Williams has always been a star basketball player. During the heights of his illustrious high school basketball career Chris finds himself in a life threatening situation that no one but his older brother, Marcus, could get him out of. Would this ruin his chances of furthering his hoop dreams and becoming a pro ball player? Brace yourself and experience all these events as you step into The Holy City II: Rise In Power
