People always knew Rob and Amy will end up together. They've been a couples since second grade. Rob loves Amy, Amy loves Rob-- it's that simple.

It's actually not that simple at all.

Rob and Amy live a good life. Both of them are doing well at work, and despite having kids, they still see action under the sheets-- "more than your average couple," or so Rob thought.

On the surface it seems that there's no burning paradise, but one cancelled business trip warrants him to witness something he never saw coming...
