High Treason: The Final Conflict Mark A Hornbeck

This book is intended for the SDA or anyone who is concerned with the final events of earth's history and their impact on God's final remnant church. It examines the nature of the rebellion against God that began in heaven and then spread to the earth. It reveals how our heavenly Father and His Son dealt with this high treason against their government. It shows how justice and mercy met in love for mankind's redemption. It also delves into the final attack that Lucifer would wage against God's final remnant people just before Christ's second coming. It deals with the three ways that Satan has been repeatedly successful in his attacks on mankind. Finally we will see the final overthrow of the head of the rebellion and his followers and the reestablishment of peace in the universe.
