Little Ghetto Boy (The Chronicles Of T-Bo) (Volume 1) Marquis Davis Sr

With a lack of parenting from his constantly incarcerated father and his crack cocaine addicted mother, 14 year old Tyrone Davis, aka T-Bo, turns to the streets and the demons within for the rules to live life in the rugged streets of Southeast San Diego. T-Bo quickly learns that in the streets it is not all about having money. One has to be a murderer of men in order to navigate the creepy trails of a gang infested city in order to survive. When T-Bo's name and young reputation gains notoriety, he learns another hard lesson in the life of a block boy, that he will not always be the hunter, that a time comes when even the hunter becomes the hunted. He learns that the streets are heartless and that his life can be snuffed out and taken just as quickly as he has taken lives. Little Ghetto Boy is the first book in a ten book series titled, "The Chronicles of T-Bo". Take a ride with the author as our hero experiences life, love, and loss, from the time he enters the game to the time he learns, and why he leaves it all behind. Reader beware! Once you start reading, you won't want to put Little Ghetto Boy down.
