The Compendium has arrived. But with its arrival comes many questions. What is it? How do I use it? What is with all the Latin? Why is Sacred Art in the Compendium? How does it relate to how I use the Catechism? The Catechist's Companion to the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church answers these questions and more. Developed by child psychologist and diocesan director of family life, Dr. Joseph D. White, with the support of experienced educators, Catechist's Companion to the Compendium delivers motivation, insight, and practical applications for all catechists regarding the Compendium - regardless of experience level. Just 16 pages, this full-color resource is a quick, but informative read, with thought-provoking articles, faith builders, and practical applications for implementing the use of the Compendium. The Catechist's Companion to the Compendium is a must-read for catechists, teachers, parish staff, and volunteers!
