Having accidentally allowed his grandchildren to be transported into the Irish supernatural dimension of Tir na nog, Grandfather must attempt to get his wee ones back home to their mortal world. The quest is fraught with suspense, danger and death. Losing their lives in this fairy world is certainly possible, if not probable. Tir na nog, Ireland's ancient legendary land, home of leprechauns, fairies, terrifying headless dullahans, trolls, grogochs, and banshees, is ablaze in a horrifying war of retribution. A cyclonic battle between the forces of good and evil exists in this once peaceful realm. The Shamrock Kingdom is in a shambles. The mystical, good natured world of Tir na nog is teetering on the edge of the abyss. No quarter is given in this war, nor expected; mercy is nonexistent, only chaos and death prevail. It's at this turbulent time Grandfather and his children arrive through an unearthly portal via a magical stone and fairy ring. Grandfather's fears are real; his quest for his children's safety and eventual return home may prove impossible. Fight with Royal King Damon, Lord of the Three Kingdoms. Learn of the mysterious fairy Queen Seena. Bravely clash with evil black magic and try as you may to outwit the diabolical witch Demonisha and her evil empire. Struggle with good Prince Thomas, recently turned into a black cat by the witch, in his deadly quest to break the evil spell upon him, a spell that could ultimately cost the royal lad his life. Will the powers of good triumph over evil? Will the paradise, known as Tir na nog, return to its former beauty and serenity? Most important, will the children and the old Irishman ever get home?
