The Most Beautiful Little Girl In The World Nancy Elizabeth Pharr

Every little girl is beautiful. As a little girl grows up, inevitably she finds another little girl prettier, smarter, healthier, wealthier, more athletic, etc. From a distance, a friend may seem to have it all. Feelings of inadequacy, jealousy, insecurity and even hate can then ensue. Teaching a little girl to look within her own heart, to know how valuable she is to the God who created her and to know God's love are great resources for life. Inner beauty, that comes from a close relationship with God, transcends any label that the world may give... When a little girl lets that inner beauty shine through, she will be "The Most Beautiful Little Girl In The World!" This is a wonderfully inspirational little book filled with delightful text and beautiful photographic images. This book will become a very special keepsake in a child's personal library. *Age appropriate for birth - seven but may be enjoyed by children of all ages
