The Story of Rumpelstiltskin Elizabeth Goldsmith-Conley

King Milhaus has locked Miller Milton's daughter Millie in his castle, ordering her to spin straw into gold. That's because her father has been bragging about the amazing things she can do. There's no way, though, that Millie can really spin straw into gold. But then a strange little man shows up and promises to help her. . . on one condition! Read this amusing update of a classic tale to see how the feisty heroine confronts her dilemmas. Lively and colorful illustrations feature photos of the actual puppets used in the author's puppet shows. Templates for making stick puppets and scenery, as well as resources for other interactive activities, are available online. Check out the fun at www.portablepoppets.com and learn how to put on your own show.
